Left History accepts manuscripts electronically through email and as hard copies through standard mail (although articles received electronically are preferred). Please format submissions in accordance with the Left History style guide, available on our web page.

Left History is indexed in America: History and Life, Historical Abstracts, Sociological Abstracts, and the Alternative Press Index. Full text editions of Left History are available online thanks to the York University Library's Open Journal Systems project. All current print subscribers will have access to the online edition when they register their email address with the journal.

Subscriptions are $20 per year for individuals, $15 per year for students, and $60 per year for institutions. Canadian orders please pay in Canadian dollars, all others in US dollars. For additional information on subscriptions please visit our website.

For their funding and support, Left History thanks the Faculty of Graduate Studies, the Graduate Students' Association, the Vice President Research and Administration, the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council, and the Department of History at York University. Left History is printed by York Printing Services in Toronto, Ontario.

Left History, its editors, editorial board, and publisher disclaim responsibility and liability for statements, either of fact or opinion, made by contributors.

ABOUT THE CONTRIBUTORS

James Hull is an Associate Professor in the Department of History at the University of British Columbia's Okanagan Campus. He teaches courses in the history of science and technology.

Robert Teigrob is an Associate Professor of History at Ryerson University, where he teaches courses in modern international relations.

Dustin Galer received his PhD in History from the University of Toronto and has written extensively on disability, labour, and environmental issues. He has taught Canadian, Gender, Labour, and Immigration History and is currently a postdoctoral fellow in the Department of Health Policy & Management at York University, where he studies disability rights and anti-poverty activism.

Kevin Chrisman is a doctoral candidate in the Department of History at York University. He is currently living in Mexico City, where he is conducting research for his dissertation, titled "Selling Modernity in Mexico: A Cultural History of the Sanbors Department Store, 1903 - 1985."

Christoph Laugs is a PhD Candidate at the University of Trier, Germany. Christoph is researching the role of Métis clothing in collective memory, how Métis people have used clothing as a marker, and how items of Métis clothing have been staged in museum displays.
