

Editors' Note

This issue of left history marks the passing of E. P. Thompson with a section of reflections on, and remembrance of, his life, work, and influence. Publication was delayed by six weeks in order to allow for this tribute. The next issue will be released on schedule in early Spring.

left history has undergone some significant changes since the publication of the first issue. Alison Forrest has left her position as co-editor to begin research in Australia on her study, "Changing Representations of Women Workers: Canada and Australia 1930-1960." She will return as a member of the editorial board next issue. Cynthia Comacchio, now the co-ordinating editor, will become review editor next issue. Those interested in reviewing books should send a c.v. to Cynthia at the Department of History, Wilfrid Laurier University, Waterloo, Canada N2L 3C5; E-Mail: CCOMACCH @ MACH1.WLU.CA. We would also like to welcome our new editorial board members: Terry Crowley, Karen Dubinsky, Philip Girard, Annalee Gölz, and Danny Samson, and extend our appreciation to Michael Boudreau who has departed to continue his research in Halifax.
